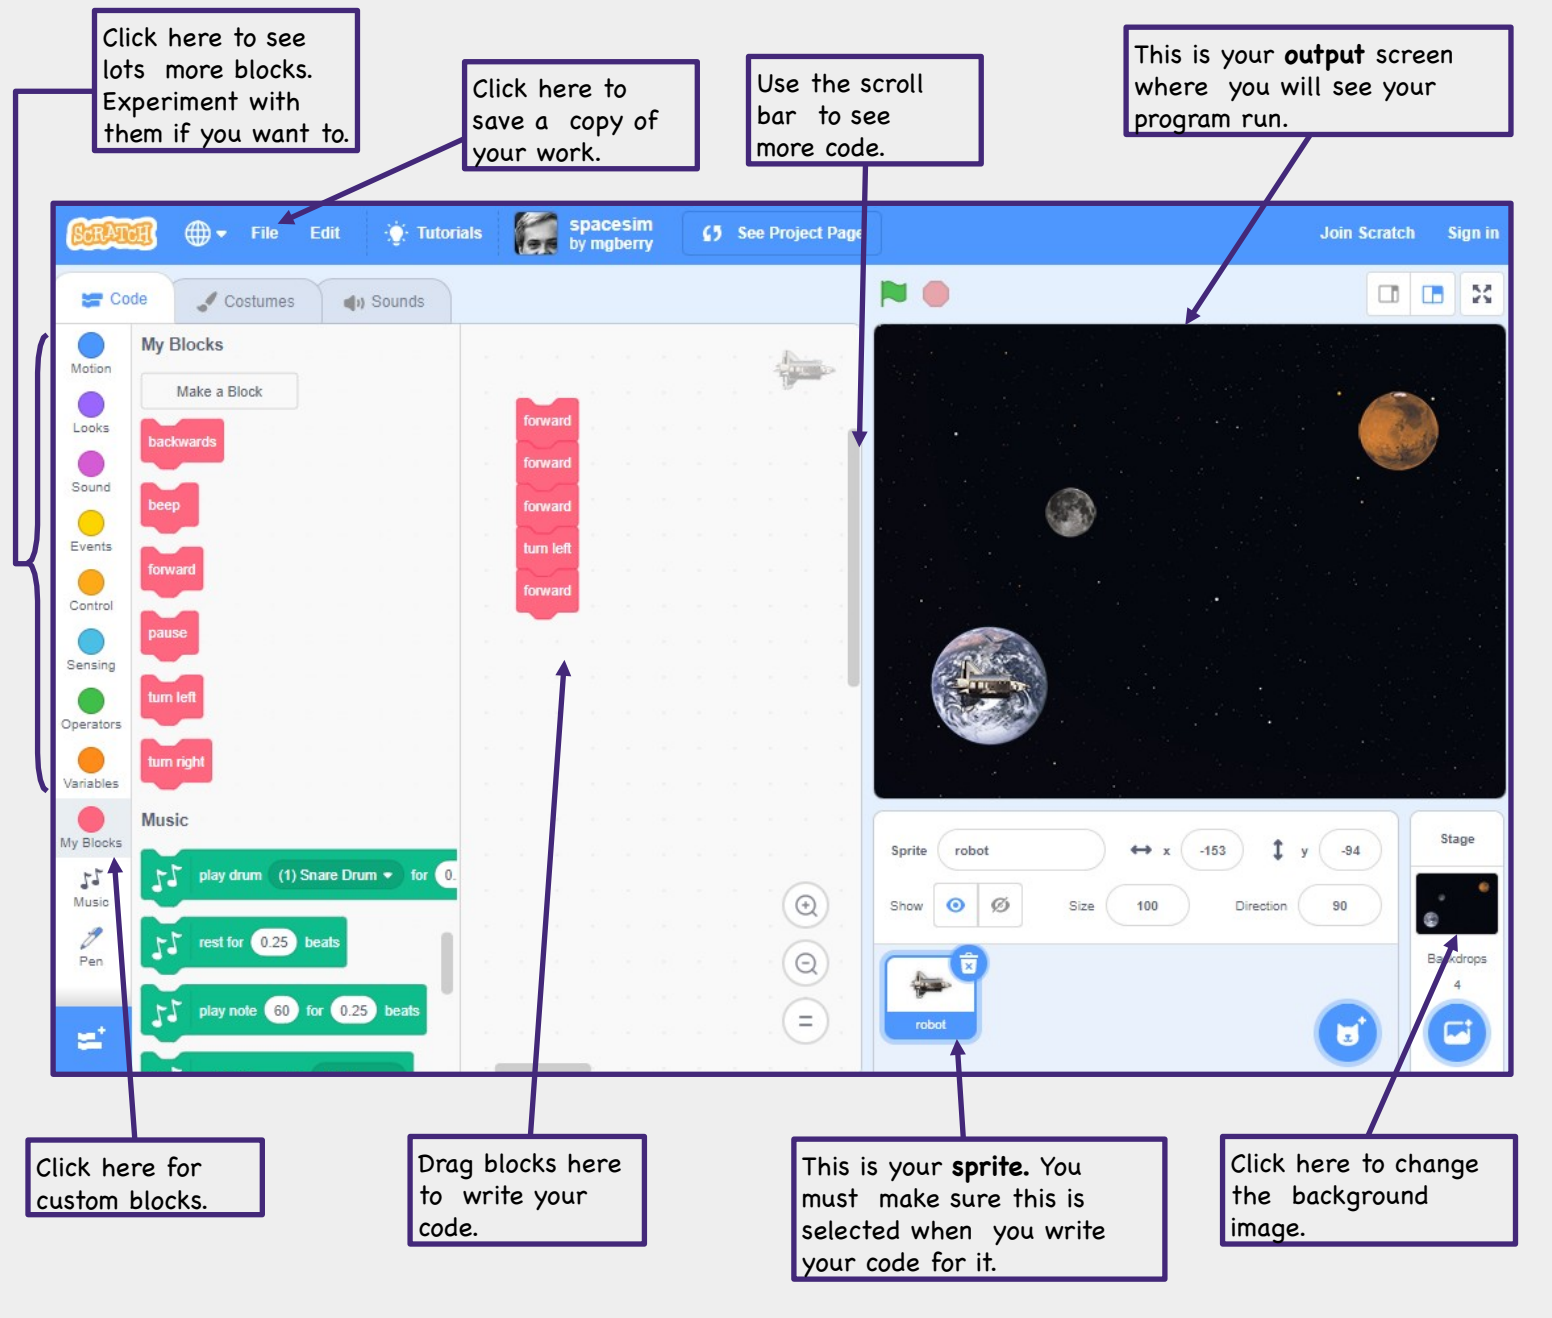
Year 2 Computing Knowledge Organiser – We are adventure astronauts

Subject Specific Vocabulary


Algorithm	An algorithm is a set of instructions that we complete in order to achieve a task.
Debug	To fix the errors in a program.
Instructions	Detailed information about how something should be done or used.
Predict	To say what will happen in the future as a result of something
Problem	Something that is not wanted and needs to be fixed or overcome.
Program	A computer program is a collection of instructions or algorithms designed to complete a task.
Robot	A machine that is able to do jobs that a human can do, automatically
Scratch	A particular programming language
Sprite	A computer graphics object that can be controlled (programmed) on its own.