Key Learning

Christianity is a world wide religion with nearly 2.5 billion people identifying as a Christian.

Christianity is broadly split into three branches: Roman Catholic, Protestant and Eastern Orthodox. They all have their own specific ways of worshipping and teaching. Some aspects of Christian beliefs are shared between churches and some are not. However, all are united in the acknowledgement of the Lord Jesus Christ as God as witnessed by the scriptures and in the life of the Church.

One of the most famous Catholic churches is St Peter's Basilica in Vatican City, Rome.

Big Question: Is Christianity one big group?
